

And Then There Were Four...

Who will it be? The steady Colts with Peyton Manning, the rough and tumble lunch box Jets, the Brett Favre led Vikings, or the fast and wild Hoo-Dat Saints?

TBT Brotherhood's Annual Super Bowl Party is here again! Join us Sunday February 7th, 2010. Kickoff is 3:20pm, so join us an hour before kickoff for fun and frolic as we get ready to enjoy a great game!

To save your place at the Brotherhood Super Bowl Party/Penny Ante Poker Fest, you must email your RSVP to Gary Kornbluh (GKornbluh@compsee.com) before Groundhog's Day TUESDAY February 2, 2010.

Based on more than a decade of great Brotherhood Super Bowl bashes past, we know you'll be sorry if you miss this one. It's going to be a great afternoon of food, fun, football and friendship. Our fellow brotherhood members, family and guests are invited.

Great food: We'll start off with mountains of munchies. If it's salty and crunchy we'll have lots of it...you'll literally dip' till you drop. Then at half-time, you'll need an NFL-size appetite as we chow down on bagels, lox and cream cheese with sides of onions, tomatoes and capers. Plus for those with an appetite for sandwiches, there will be a deli tray and rye bread. To wash it all down, lots of ice cold sodas, juices and water. If you want a beer, please bring a six-pack to share.

Great game, great place: There couldn't be a more exciting match-up. Who's it going to be? Saints? Jets? Vikings? Colt?

Watch this historic game and rate those amazing commercials on a big screen TV at the beautiful home of Bonnie and Eric Matson in the Bridal Trails neighborhood of Bellevue. (See no-sweat driving directions below). Thanks so much to Eric and Bonnie for their gracious hospitality and welcoming us into their home

Great penny-ante poker: Be prepared for outrageous bluffing and good-natured kibitzing around the low-stakes poker table where things get really crazy when wild cards produce hands you wouldn't believe. Just bring your poker chips, cards, rabbit's foot and a sense of humor.

Great fun: If you watch the game at home, you'll be missing out on the camaraderie of a "men's afternoon out" with the guys. Our Super Bowl party is Brotherhood's longest running event. This is our 14th consecutive Super Bowl Bash because it's a really fun way to reconnect with your Temple buddies, and an easy way for non-members to make new friends. Attending does not obligate you to join.

To make the afternoon extra exciting, there's a football pool with five cash winners, one each quarter and another for total points. Come with a friend, your spouse or bring a child over 12. All Temple congregants of both genders are welcome. Arrive by 2:30 for pre-game fun. Kick-off is 3:20 PM.

Admission is only $15. Email Gary Kornbluh → GKornbluh@atemplebnaitorah.org to reserve your spot, and get directions. PLEASE RSVP BY TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 2, SO WE KNOW HOW MUCH FOOD TO BUY.
