

A Fun-filled
Multi-generational Weekend of Jewish Experiences

HELD AT CAMP SEALTH
VASHON ISLAND

Come to Camp Kesher:

- > To study, pray, play and celebrate Shabbat and Havdalah in a multi-generational community of Jews from the Puget Sound and beyond.
- > To enjoy stimulating programs with a leading Jewish scholar.
- > For a weekend of supervised age-appropriate activities for children and teens.
- > For Israeli dancing, sing-alongs, games and the best talent show ever.
- > For a wide variety of workshops on crafts, books discussions, Challah baking and many more.
- > For recreational activities, including boating, nature walks, archery, a challenge course, softball, volleyball and Ga-Ga.
- > To see old friends and make new ones.
- > To play in the sand, read a book by the Sound or relax and chill.

If you went to Jewish summer camp as a child and long to recapture that time in your life, or if you didn't, but have wondered what it was like, Camp Kesher is about as close as you can get. For four days, campers of all ages are immersed in Jewish community and study, and enjoy nature, sports, music, and crafts—away from everyday distractions and responsibilities. (No cooking!) Make this experience a gift for yourself and your family. All levels of Jewish knowledge and commitment are welcome.

2008 Scholar-in-Residence: Rabbi Larry Hoffman

Rabbi Hoffman is the Barbara and Stephen Friedman Professor of Liturgy, Worship, and Ritual and Director of the Synagogue 2000 Initiative for synagogue spirituality, HUC-JIR/New York. His research, writing and classes fall into three categories: 1) the history of Jewish liturgy; 2) ritual studies (the application of the human sciences and philosophical thought to the act of human ritual); 3) contemporary worship and modern Jewish spirituality.
